suit of the crime a baby was born and the girl is doomed to bear the burden alone of raising a child which Knight confesses to being the father of. The prosecuting attorney knew nothing of the plea nor of the fine, nor when the fine was imposed. The girl must go through life with the evidence of her weakness to clothe and feed while the self-confessed author of her ruin is let off by paying a paltry fine of $25. Since it became known that the case had been "settied," considerable indignation has been expressed by the people.

Provo, Dec. 29.—It now comes to light that Don Knight went before Precinct Justice De Moisey, about two weeks ago, and pleaded guilty to the charge of fornication, committed with Ida Anderson, a young girl living in the Ifrist ward. Knight was fined $25 and allowed to go at that. As a result of the erime a baby was born and the girl is doomed to bear the burden alone of raising a child which Knight confesses to being the father.

Mr. H. E. Gardner Jr. is a new councilman by appointment to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. Worseneroft. A petition from 400 citizens, asking the council for repeal the liquor license and make this a prohibition town, was read, discussed and referred to the judiciary corumtitee for investigation and counsel on the subject. Our citizens are becoming tired of hoodiumism created and trained by this kind of business and want our "city dads" to amend our charter and ordinances to better our society and save our young men from degradation. Mrs. M. D. Potter made good speeches in defense of their petition. All the members of the council pledged themselves in their remarks to put our laws in better shape and prohibit the sale of all liquore and pool table nulsances in our city, if possible to accomplish it.

Reiler Explosion in Washington.

The Standard is considerably perturbed over an alleged change of front by The Herald since last fall on the matter of county finances. The Herald has not changed front, and an expert in that line like the Standard knows it. The Herald simply advocates honest dealing. It never pretended to say the borrowing of the money by the commissioners was necessary, wise or legal. But it was borowed and used. Will the Standard say it should not be paid? There must be some legal way for the county to pay a just claim even if it takes a special act of the legislature, and no matter how the laws may be interpreted the fact remains that Weber county got the money and used it.

San Francisco, Dec. 29.—A Call special from Fresno, Cal., reports the finding near the cemetery west of that town of a trunk containing $150,000 in gold, confectured to have been buried there years ago by Joaquin Vasquez, an outlaw of early days. The name of the finder of the gold is guarded carefully by the few who know of the discovery, but the story is vouched for by J. G. Wefford, a former deputy constable.

According to Wofferd, some old Mexican, who died recently, told the party who discovered the treasure of its existence and the place where it could be found. By a singular piece of good fortune the trunk was found in one of the first disciparation in the first disciparation.

The finder and his friends were under the impression that the state could confiscate one-half of the trensure. This it is desired to prevent by not making the discovery known. There is a possibility that Woffords friends have only found counterfeit coin. Deputy Sheriff Timmins states that a convict told him that he knew where a trunk containing a large amount of counterfeit coin was buried near this city. The prisoner said he would tell the officer where it was located when he should have served his time. Timmins refused to divulge the name of the convict. It is, in all probability, this vict. It is, in all probability, trunk that Wofford's friend found.
